

Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA)

The Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA) was born in 2006 at the Seventh Session of the Association of Asian Parliamentary for Peace (AAPP). In other words, the APA is continuation of an organization which was established in 1999. The APA comprises, in 2007, of 41 Member Parliaments and 17 observers. Each Member Parliament has a specific number of seats in the Assembly based on the size of their population. The number of total seats, and therefore, number of votes, is currently 206. Members of Assembly must be elected by members of the Member Parliaments. The APA Charter and Tehran Declaration lay out a framework of cooperation among Asian countries, and point out to a vision; that is Asian Integration.

During the year 2009, the application of India Group of IPU for the Membership in Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA) was considered by the Executive Committee of APA during its session held in Bandung from 7 to 10 December 2010 and India became a member of APA.
