

MEMBERS' REFERENCE SERVICE, LARRDIS

The Reference Division of Parliament Library and Reference, Research, Documentation and Information Service (LARRDIS) is designed to cater to the information needs of Members of both Houses of Parliament in connection with day-to-day business before the two Houses. The Division functions to keep Hon'ble Members of Parliament informed of important developments in India and abroad in various fields and to supply them information and materials on subjects required in connection with their parliamentary work. The subjects range from agriculture to industry, social welfare to science and technology, legal, political issues, defence issues, international affairs, etc.

In order to use the services of Reference Division, Hon'ble Members are informed that requisition slips are available at Members' Information Desk, Parliament House and Reference Division in 'I' Block, Parliament Library Building. Members may also send their requisitions by e-mail (refdiv-iss@sansad.nic.in) or through Members' e-portal for online references. Reference requests can also be conveyed to the Members' Reference Service on Telephone number 23034232 and 23034660 and through Fax number 23017517.

Kind cooperation of Hon'ble Members is solicited.
